

Admission Arrangement for the Media Centre

The Media Centre (“MC”) of the 2018 Legislative Council Kowloon West Geographical Constituency By-election will be set up at the Tiu Keng Leng Sports Centre (“TKLSC”), Tsueng Kwan O. Members of the public may enter the public gallery within the MC to watch the announcement of the election result.

Owing to the limited size of the public gallery, the seating capacity is limited to 498. Members of the public will be admitted to the venue via the Chui Ling Road Entrance on a “first-come, first-served” basis starting from 11:00 p.m. on the polling day on 25 November 2018. They are required to wear a wristband provided by the Registration and Electoral Office at the point of admission at the TKLSC for identification purpose.

Members of the public who wish to enter the MC should note the following admission arrangements –

1. Members of the public are required to observe the House Rules and go through the metal detector and bag search process before admission.
2. Upon completion of the above process, security guards will put on wristbands for members of the public.
3. Members of the public are required to wear the wristbands within the MC for identification and re-entry purposes.
4. Members of the public are required to go through the metal detector and bag search process again when re-entering the MC.
5. When leaving the MC with NO intention of re-entry, members of the public should inform the security guards at the exit of the MC who will assist them in removing the wristbands.
6. No replacement for any lost or damaged wristbands will be provided.
